PRESS RELEASE

Indiana Adventist Camp Meeting “Fan the Flame” Starts Next Week

Cicero, IN”Fan the Flame” is the theme for this year’s Indiana Camp Meeting being held June 11-17 in Cicero at the Indiana Academy campus and sponsored by the Indiana Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Thousands of Hoosiers will be converging on the boarding school campus to hear international speakers, health and lifestyle professionals, as well as specialists on religious liberty and the Protestant Reformation. There are children’s programs each day, a 5K Run on Thursday, as well as food and special interest booths. The public is invited to these free events.

Robert Folkenberg, Jr., kicks off the event Sunday night at 7 p.m. to talk about his missionary work in China and how we all can “fan the flame” of spreading the Gospel message. Jerry Johns will show through photography how we can become “Closer to God through Nature.” “Daily Health Nuggets” seminars will be held by Pastor Daniel and Nerida McKibben as well as a seminar on the “Secrets and Mysteries of the Lost Ark” with Jim Hoffer.

During this 500th anniversary year of the Protestant Reformation, we have invited special guest Dr. Nicholas Miller, professor and author, and Director of Public Affairs and Religious Liberty at Andrews University in Berrien Springs, Michigan, to speak on where we are today 500 years later. His seminars will be held Tuesday-Thursday at 6 p.m. in the Academy Chapel.

Most of the evening meetings will be held in the newly air-conditioned gymnasium/auditorium. Indiana Academy is located just north of Cicero, IN at 24815 State Route 19.

-end-

Robert Folkenberg, Jr., and Dr. Nicholas Miller are available for live interviews, Weds. and Thursday. Indiana Conference President Steve Poenitz is also available upon request.
